

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 28, 1882.

Belief for the Needy.

The pastor of St. Chrysostom's Protestant Episcopal Church, Twenty-eighth street and Susquehanna avenue, has hit upon a plan for detecting unworthy persons soliciting alms at his door, and for the nearly two years it has been in operation but one individual has circumvented him. The pastor accepted the request of the Society for Organizing Charity to make inquiry into the needs of applicants for alms, and he set about his work in this manner: He obtained a freshly coined silver dollar from the Mint, and to all persons who applied to him for assistance he held the shining coin before them and said it would be theirs if they would remove a cartload of gravel that had been dumped in the ministerial back yard by a wicked carter driver. An hour would have sufficed to perform the work, but the applicants were unable to find a spare hour in which to remove the obstruction. The first case was a man on his way to Baltimore, who wanted only a little more to aid him. The minister produced his dollar, and the traveller's eye brightened as he spied the shining silver. "Here, sir, is a dollar," but holding on to it, he added: "You are a strong man and honorable, and you would rather work for it, would you not?" "Indeed I would," was the answer. "I have a load of gravel which I would like to have removed; it will take you an hour. I will give you this." He left to change his clothes, and not being able to find them, he never returned. The next man who had had nothing to eat for two days. He had a dinner given to him, and then wanted a little money for his sick wife. The bright dollar was produced, and many blessings were invoked as it met the gaze of the poor man. The gravel heap was diligently hauled, and the man started immediately for his tools, but a spade was offered on the spot. Then he suddenly remembered his sick wife, who needed attention, and that man failed to reappear. This course was continued for two months, and in that time 113 persons were relieved in the manner described. The 114th customer was a man for the minister, and put a stop to that system of outdoor relief. The man had noticed that the dirt heap had been nearly levelled, and that the gravel was being hauled, and he merely kicked about the heap for a few minutes, and the obstruction was removed to the satisfaction of the minister, who paid the dollar to the wily knave.—Philadelphia Record.

VIRGINIA: In the Clerk's office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 29th day of June, 1882.
John H. Lunt, creditor, secured with others by a certain deed of trust, and George A. Mushbach and Koscusko Kemper, trustees, complainants, against Peter Wise, trustee, Warwick P. Miller, trustee, John Kehoe, trustee, Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, constituting the firm of Lister Bros., Benedict J. Burgess, Wm. K. Downing, B. J. Burgess and Wm. K. Downing, of the alleged firm of B. J. Burgess & Co., defendants. In chancery. The object of this suit is to enjoin and restrain Warwick P. Miller, trustee, and Peter Wise, trustee, their employees and agents and all other persons from making sale on July 1, 1882, as advertised in the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, of one lot of ground and warehouses with dock and wharf property attached, lately belonging to Benedict J. Burgess, and situate on the east side of Union, between Prince and Duke streets, under a deed of trust from Burgess to Wise, dated April 15, 1881, to secure $3,400.00 to Warwick P. Miller, trustee; and to marshal the lies on said property and ascertain their priorities; and to obtain a decree setting aside as fraudulent, null and void, a certain deed of trust on a portion of said property and other property, dated March 4, 1882, from B. J. Burgess and W. K. Downing, alleging themselves to be partners, trading as B. J. Burgess & Co., to John Kehoe, trustee, to secure the payment of $9,555.00 to Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, partners, doing business in New York city, under the firm name of Lister Bros., which sum is evidenced by the three notes of Burgess & Co. to Lister Bros., viz: one of January 4, 1882, for $2,209.00, at 60 days, with interest; one of December 22, 1881, for $3,683.50, at four months, with interest, and the other of December 22, 1881, for $3,683.50, at eight months, with interest.

The defendants, Warwick P. Miller, John Kehoe and Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, comprising the firm of Lister Bros., not having answered the appearance and given security, according to the act of Assembly, and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by an affidavit that the said defendants appear here with one month after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city.
